Established on April 12, 2007, under Business Registration No. 0304925039 issued by the Ho Chi Minh City Department of Planning and Investment, New Generation Paint Co., Ltd. has become one of Vietnam's leading manufacturers of industrial and protective coatings.

Our products serve a wide range of industries, including shipbuilding and ship repair, marine coatings, protective coatings for industrial structures, highway, railway and airport bridges, industrial machinery, chemical processing facilities, and high-temperature applications with heat resistance of up to 650°C.

In response to the growing use of structural steel in high-rise buildings and the increasing demand for fire protection in compliance with fire safety regulations, New Generation Paint introduced its Fire Protection Coating in 2011, developed based on American technology. Today, the Company is recognized as one of Vietnam's leading manufacturers in passive fire protection coating technology.

We are committed to providing customers with the optimum combination of product quality, cost-effectiveness, product diversity and professional technical support. We believe that superior product quality is the foundation of long-term performance, ensuring durability, aesthetic appearance, and lasting value for our customers' brands as well as our own.

By combining advanced manufacturing technology with premium raw materials sourced from globally recognized suppliers such as Dow, Hexion, Momentive, Evonik, Tego, BYK, DuPont, Elementis,... we consistently deliver high-quality coating solutions that meet the demanding requirements of industrial and marine applications.

New Generation Paint is committed to delivering reliable coating solutions, exceptional customer service and long-term partnerships, contributing to the sustainable success of our customers worldwide.
